Re: United States v. Chad Greenshner
Docket No.: 12-cr-171 (JPO)

12 CR 171-35(JPO)

Dear Judge Oetken:

In ~~May~~ 1, 2012 you authorized the use of paralegals in this case. A copy of the so ordered letter is attached. One of the paralegals, Shana Kniznik has since left my employment to go to law school and I have replaced her with an attorney associate, Carina Patritti. As we now prepare for a trial in this matter, I would like to utilize her services. The presumptive rate for associate is $85.00 per hour. Because Ms. Patritti is a full time employee for whom I provide benefits and absorb overhead, the Second Circuit Manual contemplates that I may request her to be paid at $110.00 per hour, still substantially less than my hourly rate under the Criminal Justice Act. I request that you authorize me to use her services on this case for up to fifty hours, understanding that if I need more time, I will seek your authorization.

Granted.

SO ORDERED:

J. PAUL OETKEN
U.S.D.J. 2/28/13

Respectfully yours,

Frederick H. Cohn
